In reading the Senate floor debate on the Buckley amendment that we discussed on Tuesday, I came across the following statement by Senator Buckley which may be of use to your personnel in arguing that lists of foreign students are not covered by the amendment. Buckley said, "My amendment does not affect matters of public record, which may be names and addresses of people who appear to be students in a school."

Attached is a copy of the debate on the amendment as printed in the Congressional Record. The quote appears on page S8069.
